

Remote Access and VPN Guide

Remote workers connect through the Nimbus VPN before reaching any internal system.

Install the client from the IT portal and sign in with your staff account and MFA token.

Split tunnelling is disabled. All traffic is routed through the corporate gateway while the VPN is connected.

If the connection drops three times in a row, raise a ticket with the IT desk rather than retrying indefinitely.