

Northwind Systems Security Standard

All Northwind engineering laptops use full disk encryption and a hardware token for sign-in.

Control plane credentials are rotated every 45 days and are never stored outside the Northwind secrets vault.

The incident bridge for the control platform is staffed 24/7 during a release window. The escalation contact is the programme lead.

Third party access requires a signed NDA and is reviewed quarterly by the Northwind security team.